

THE EAGLE

1960

1960 EAGLE FORWARD

SENIOR YEAR

You've made it, you're a senior now;
This high goal you've attained.
Your class mates now surround you,
That is, the ones who have remained.

Oh, you've lost a few along the way,
And naturally, you've gained some.
You're mighty proud to be on top,
And see the path you've come from.

A lot of fun this road has been,
A little trouble here and there,
A few close friends, some enemies,
Some rough and tumble wear.

As girls, we treasure memories;
As boys, we treasure fun,
But both enjoyed our senior year,
The last, but far best one.

FARWELL HIGH SCHOOL
FARWELL, MICHIGAN

DEDICATION

We dedicate to Mr. Leon Gamble, Sr., the yearbook of 1960. He has been with our school system since 1948. Mr. Gamble was born September 9, 1898, and raised in Lakeport, Michigan, about nine miles north of Port Huron. He worked fifteen years in Mt. Pleasant for the Pure Oil Company before coming to Farwell.

Some of us have known him as bus driver of number 8, "OLD YELLER." Others know him as a man ready with a joke or a gruff word depending on which we needed the most.

MISS CLARE COUNTY

Grace Ann Breidenstein, 18, a senior at Farwell High School, is shown here as she is crowned Miss Clare County by Bob Reynolds, sports announcer for WJR radio. Grace was first chosen Miss Lake and won the Miss Clare County title after she defeated Miss Clare, Miss Farwell and Miss Harrison in the Winter Sports Festival Queen Contest at the Hotel Doherty in Clare on January 30, 1960. Grace then represented Clare County in the finals at Grayling, Michigan, on February 13, and although she did not win, her classmates and teachers are proud of her.
